RENOVATE YOUR

FEATHERS!

THE undersigned offers to the citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity a rare chance to avail themselves of the unparalled benefits of this unrivalled

Feather Dressing and Renovating Machine,

The most successful patent of the kind ever offered to the public. And we venture the prediction that it never will be excelled, for it proves to be exactly what all conditions and qualities of Feathers, from entirely new to old and much worn, need to render them as perfect as age, quality and condition will admit of their being made.

The Cleansing is Done Entirely by Steam.

No fire coming near the Feathers, consequently no possibility of burning, scorching, or otherwise injuring them. By this process all moths are destroyed and removed, the Feathers cleansed, the fibres relieved from their matted position, giving a bed an astonishing increase in bulk, often more than one-half; also removing all disagreeable scent which is so common to new as well as old Feathers. In fact giving the appearance and essential qualities of New Feathers, and relieving them from all liability to moths by the removal of all gummy or glutinous matter from the quill. Our facilities are such, that by short notice, we can take and return beds the same day, well dressed and ready for immediate use.
We warrant entire satisfaction or make no charge. All persons, especially ladies, are invited to call and see the machine in operation, at Paxton's store room, on Baltimore street, and judge for themselves.

Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE,

Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—SECRET and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brillient intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidentially rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER,

Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.

Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!

Persons Ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICTLAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emicated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN

who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and employments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or Unskillful PRETENDERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sign over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most Inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.

There are so many Paltry, Designing and Worthless Imposters advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A LAXATIVE MEDICINE.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS OF APPETITE, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, BILIOUS COLIC and BILIOUS FEVERS, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

IS THERE ROOM IN ANGEL-LAND?

These lines were written after hearing the following touching incident related by a minister:—A mother who was preparing some flour to bake into bread, left it for a few moments, when little Mary—with childish curiosity to see what it was—took hold of the dish, when it fell to the floor, spilling the contents. The mother struck the child a severe blow, saying with anger, that she was always in the way! Two weeks after little Mary sickened and died. On her death-bed, while delirous, she asked her mother if there would be room for her among the angels. "I was always in your way, mother—you had no room for little Mary. And will I be in the angel's way? Will they have no room for me?" The broken hearted mother then felt no sacrifice too great could she have saved her child.

Is there no room among the angels,
For the spirit of your child?
Will they take your little Mary
In their loving arms so mild?
Will they ever love me fondly,
As my story books have said?
Will they find a home for Mary—
Mary numbered with the dead?
Tell me truly, darling mother!
Is there room for such as me?
Will I gain the home of spirits,
And the shining angels see?

I have sorely tried you, mother—
Been to you a constant care!
And you will not miss me, mother,
When I dwell among the fair!
For you have no room for Mary—
She was ever in your way,
And she fears the good will shun her!
Will they, darling mother, say?
Tell me—tell me truly mother,
Ere life's closing hour doth come!
Do you think that they will keep me,
In the shining angel's home?

I was not so wayward, mother:
Not so very—very bad,
But that tender love would nourish,
And make Mary's heart so glad!
Oh! I yearned for pure affection,
In this world of bitter woe!
And I long for bliss immortal,
In that land where I must go!
Tell me once again, dear mother,
Ere you take the parting kiss!
Will the angels bid me welcome
To that world of perfect bliss?

TOUCHING SKETCH.

"Please, sir, will you buy my chestnuts?"

"Chestnuts? No!" returned Ralph Moore, looking carelessly down on the upturned face whose large brown eyes, shadowed by tangled curls of flaxen hair, were appealing so pitifully to his own, "what do I want with chestnuts?"

"But please, sir, do buy 'em," pleaded the little one, reassured by the rough kindness of his tone. "Nobody seems to care for 'em, and—and—"

She fairly burst into tears, and Moore, who had been on the point of brushing carelessly past her, stopped instinctively.

"Are you very much in want of the money?"

"Indeed, sir, we are," sobbed the child. "Mother sent me out, and—"

"Nay, little one, do not cry in such a broken-hearted way," said Ralph, smoothing her hair down with careless gentleness, "I don't want your chestnuts, but here is a quarter for you, if that will do you any good."

He did not stay to hear the delighted incoherent thanks the child poured out through a rainbow of smiles and tears, but strode on his way, muttering between his teeth:

"That cuts off my supply of cigars for the next twenty-four hours. I don't care, though, for the brown-eyed object did cry as if she hadn't a friend in the world. Hang it, I wish I was rich enough to help every poor creature out of the Slough of Despond!"

While Ralph Moore was indulging in these very reflections, the dark-orbed little damsal whom he had confronted was dashing down the street with quick, elastic step, utterly regardless of the basket of unsold nuts that dangled upon her arm. Down an obscure lane she darted, between tall, ruinous rows of old houses, and up a narrow wooden staircase to a room where a pale, neat looking woman with large brown eyes like her own, was sewing as if the breath of life depended on every stich, and two little ones were playing in the sunshine that temporarily supplied the place of the absent fire.

"Mary! back already? Surely you have not sold your chestnuts so soon!"

"No mother, mother see!" ejaculated the breathless child. "A gentleman gave me a whole quarter! Only think, mother, a whole quarter!"

If Ralph Moore could only have seen the rapture which his tiny silver gift diffused around it, in the poor widow's poverty stricken home, he would have grudged still less the temporary privation of cigars to which his generosity had subjected him.

Years came and went. The little chestnut girl passed as entirely out of Ralph Moore's memory as if her pleading eyes had never touched the soft spot in his heart, but Mary Lee never forgot the stranger who had given her the silver piece.

The crimson window curtains were closely drawn to shut out the storm and tempest of the bleak December night—the fire was glowing cheerfully in the well-filled grate, and the dinner table all in glitter with cut glass, rare china, table all in glitter with, cut glass, rare china, and polished silver, only waited for the presence of Mr. Audley.

"What can it be that detains papa?" said Mrs. Audley, a fair handsome matron of about thirty, as she glanced at the dial of a tiny enameled watch. Six o'clock and he does not make his appearance."

"There's a man with him in the study, mamma—come on business," said Robert Audley, a pretty boy of eleven years old who was reading by the fire.

"I'll call him again," said Mrs. Audley, stepping to the door.

But as she opened it, the brilliant gas-light fell full upon the face of an humble looking man in threadbare garments, who was leaving the house; while her husband stood in the doorway of his study, apparently relieved to be rid of his visitor.

"Charles," said Mrs. Audley, whose cheeks had paled and flushed, "who is that man—and what does he want?"

"His name is Moore, I believe, love, and he came to see if I would bestow upon him that vacant messengership in the bank."

"And will you?"

"I don't know, Mary—I must think about it."

"Charles, give him the situation."

"Why, my love?"

"Because I ask it of you as a favor, and you have said a thousand times you would never deny me anything."

"And I will keep my word, Mary," said the loving husband, with an affectionate kiss. "I'll write the fellow a note this evening. I believe I've got his address somewhere about me."

An hour or two later, when Robby and Frank, and little Minnie were locked snugly up in the spacious nursery above stairs, Mrs. Audley told her husband why she was interested in the fate of a man whose face she had not seen for twenty years.

"That's right my little wife!" said her husband, folding her fondly to his breast, "never forget one who has been kind to you in days when you needed kindness most."

Ralph Moore was sitting that self-same night in his lodgings by his ailing wife's sick bed, when a liveried servant brought a note from the rich and prosperous bank director, Charles Audley.

"Good news, Bertha!" he exclaimed joyously, as he read the brief words; "we shall not starve—Mr. Audley promises me the vacant situation!"

"You have dropped something from the note, Ralph," said Mrs. Moore, pointing to a slip of paper that lay on the floor.

Moore stooped to recover the estray. It was a fifty-dollar bill neatly folded in a piece of paper on which was written:

"In grateful remembrance of the silver quarter that a kind stranger bestowed on a chestnut girl twenty years ago."

Ralph Moore had thrown his morsel of bread on the waters of life, and after many years it had returned to him.

A JOKE ON THE CHOIR.—Many years ago there was in the Eastern part of Massachusetts, a worthy D. D., and although he was an eminently benevolent man and a good Christain, yet it must be confessed that he loved a good joke much better than the most inveterate jokers. It was before church organs were much in use; it so happened that the choir of the church had recently purchased a double bass viol. Not far from the church was a large pasture, and in it a huge town bull. One hot Sabbath in the Summer he got out of the pasture, and came bellowing up the street. About the church there was plenty of untrodden grass, green and good, and Mr. Bull stopped to try the quality; perchance to ascertain if its location had improved its flavor; at any rate, the doctor was in the midst of his sermon when—

"Boo-woo-woo," went the bull.

The doctor paused, looked up at the singing seats, and with a grave face, said:

"I would thank the musicians not to tune their instruments during service time; it annoys me very much."

The people tittered, for they well knew what the real state of the case was.

The minister went on again with his discourse, but he had not proceeded far before another "Boo-woo-woo" came from Mr. Bull.

The parson paused once more, and again exclaimed:

"I have twice already requested the musicians in the gallery not to tune their instruments during the sermon time. I now particularly request Mr. Lafevor that he will not tune his double bass viol while I am preaching."

This was too much. Mr Lafevor got up, much agitated at the thought of speaking out in church, and stammered out:

"It isn't me, Parson B———: it's th— that mischievous town bull!"

THE SIGNS OF THE HANDS.—If the hand be long, and the fingers well proportioned, etc., not soft, but rather hard, it denotes the person to be ingenious but changeable, and given to theft and vice.

If the hands be hollow, and well-knit in the joint, it predicts long life, but if overthwarted then it denotes short life.

Observe the finger of mercury—that is the little finger, if the end of it exceeds the joint of the ring finger, such a man will rule in his own house; and wife will be pleasing to him. But if it be short, and does not reach the joint, he will have a shrew, and she will wear the breeches.

Broad nails show the person to be bashful, but of a gentle nature.

Narrow nails denote the person to be inclined to mischief and to do injury to his neighbors.

Long nails show a person to be good-natured, but distrustful, and loving conciliation rather than differences.

Oblique nails signify deceit and want of courage.

Little round nails denote obstinate anger and hatred.

If they are crooked at the extremity, they show pride and fierceness.

Round nails show a choleric person, yet soon reconciled, honest, and a lover of secret sciences.

Fleshy hands denote the person to be mild in temper, idle and lazy.

Pale and black nails show the person to be very deceitful to his neighbor, and subject to many diseases.

THE FORCE OF IMAGINATION.—A cirsumstance occured in Hartford, Ct., two or three years since, which amused several persons considerable at the time. An Irish servant girl went into a fashionable store to purchase some ribbon. The clerk produced a very fine article, but she objected to it on the ground that the shade of the color did not exactly suit her.

"O," said the clerk," if you will only imagine that it pleases you, the color will make no difference."

And he entered into a disquisition upon the extraordinary power of the imagination. The girl heard him through very attentively, and then consented to have three or four yards of the ribbon put up.

She put it quietly in her pocket and walked off.

"Stop, if you please," said the clerk; "you haven't paid for the ribbon."

"Niver mind," was the reply, as she walked away;" jist imagine that I paid, and it will make no difference!"

MASTER CHARLIE, aged four years, on being reproved by his mother for some prank, showed his displeasure in his face, when his mother remarked:

"Why, Charlie, I am astonished to see you making faces at your mother!"

Charlie brightened up at once and retorted:

"Why, I meant to laugh; but, mamma, my face slipped."

TIT FOR TAT.—An elderly lady, telling her age, remarked that she was born on the 23d of April. Her husband, who was present, observed:

"I always thought you were born on the 1st of April?"

"People might well judge so," responded the lady, "in the choice I made of a husband."

A VERBOSE young clergyman, after hearing an address from his bishop on the importance of diligent, painstaking preparation for the pulpit, replied: "Why, my lord, I often go to the vestry without knowing what text I shall preach upon; yet I go up and preach an extempore sermon, and think nothing of it." "Ah, well," said his lordship, "that agrees with what I hear from your people; for they hear the sermon, and they also think nothing of it."

HUMOROUS.

AN Eastern moralist affirms that the only difference between the sling of David and that of the present day is that the sling throws David, and not Goliah.

A YOUNG gentleman, speaking of a young beauty's fashionable yellowish hair, called it pure gold. "It ought to be," quoth Mr. K——; "it looks like twenty-four carrots."

A KENTUCKY sheriff has notified the tax-payers in his ditrict that he is "tyred of dunning for taks," and that "taks-paiers ot to know tha ot to pay without biung duned."

"FATHER," said a lad, "I have often read of people being 'poor but honest'; why don't they sometimes say rich but honest?" "Tut, tut, my son," replied the father, "nobody would believe them."

THERE is a kind of grim humor in the address of a devout deacon to his newly-settled pastor, as he gave him the usual welcome, "The Lord keep you humble, and we will keep you poor."

"MAMMY," said a precocious little boy, who against his will was made to rock the cradle of his baby brother, "if the Lord has any more babies to give away, don't you take 'em."

IT being announced that an ingenious Yankee had invented a machine to make a man rise early, an old bachler declared that they had a baby in his boarding house that he'd bet his money on against any such machine ever made.

A CHICAGO editor says: "There are ten thousand lawsuits pending before the courts of this city, in which thirty millions of dollars, the domestic happiness of two hundred and thirteen families and twenty-three thousand barrels of whiskey are involved."

"WHY don't you limit yourself?" said a physician to an intemperate person. "Set down a stake that you will go so far and no further." "I do," replied the other; "but I set it so far off that I always get drunk before I get to it."

A MAN passed through Council Bluffs, Iowa, a day or two ago, on his return to Missouri, after having tried to live in Minnesota. "Don't like it up thar," he said. "Have nine months of winter, and the rest of the time it's d—n late in the fall.

A CENSUS-TAKER recently asked a servant girl in the vicinity of Boston how many regular, steady boarders there were in the house. She informed him that there were fifteen boarders in all, 'but not more'n four of 'em is steady; the rest is Dimmecrats!'

THE lady principal of a school, in her advertisement, mentioned her female assistant, and the "reputation for teaching which she bears;" but the printer left out "which," so the advertisement went forth commending the lady's "reputation for teaching she bears."

THE father of Dorabella recently found that little girl's chubby little hands full of the blossoms of a beautiful tea-rose, on which he had bestowed great care. "My dear," he said, "didn't I tell you not to pick one of those flowers without leave?" "Yes, papa," said Dorabella, "but all these had leaves."

"GENTLEMEN of the jury" said a blustering attorney in a suit about a lot of hogs, "gentlemen of the jury, there were thirty-six hogs in that drove; please remember that fact—thirty-six hogs; just exactly three times as many as there are in that jury box, gentlemen." The attorney didn't gain the case.

MRS. Partington being in doubt as to whether it was caterpillar or capillary attraction young Mr. Jones talked about so wonderfully, consulted "Walker," and concluded it didn't matter which it was, as capillary ment resembling hairs, and she knew caterpillars were hairy and have an attraction to leaves.

AN invincible wit and punster asked the captain of a craft laden with boards how he managed to get dinner on the passage, "Why," replied the skipper, "we always cook aboard!" "Cook a board, do you?" rejoined the wag. "Then I see you have been well supplied with provisions this trip, at all events."

THE following is a verbatim report of a conversation which recently took place between a father and his model child: Father. "My son, which would you rather do—learn a hymn or eat a bun?" Model son (who has been questioned before).—"Father, I would rather learn a hymn."—"Then, my son, you shall have two buns."

PROFESSOR S., of Hartford, the other day, felt uncomfortably stiff and sore—caught cold perhaps. He lay down on a lounge, and requested his friend W. to knead and rub him after the movement-cure style. W. gently beat him on the chest. "How hollow it sounds," said K., who was looking on. "That's nothing," said W.; "wait till I get to his head."

KING Charles II once said to John Milton: "Do you not think that your blindness is a judgment upon you for having written in defense of my father's murder?" "Sir," answered the poet, "it is true I have lost my eyes; but if all calamitous providences are to be considered as judgments, your Majesty must recollect that your royal father lost his head!"

THERE was an old lady who lived next door to the navy-yard at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, and who had the misfortune to be hard of hearing. Last fourth of July she sat in her parlor while the boys of the navy-yard fired a salute of thirty-six heavy guns. As the last sixty-eight pounder went off, the old lady started up in her chair and called out, "Come in."

Two young misses, discussing the qualities of some young gentlemen, were overheard thus: "Well, I like Charley, but he is a little girlish; he hasn't got the least bit of beard." "I say Charley has got a beard; but he shaves it off." "No, he hasn't, either; any more than I have"—"I say he has, too, and I know it; for it pricked my cheek." That's how she knew.

HIS BUSINESS.—"What is your business?" asked the judge of a prisoner at the bar.

"Well I s'pose you might call me a locksmith."

"When did you last work at the business?"

"Last night, when I heard the call for the police, an' I made a bolt for the area door."

A MINISTER out West vouches to THE INDEPENDENT for the following: "A Kansas girl was standing, hand in hand with her lover, with eyes and mouth agape, watching the incoming of the first train on a new railroad. The locomotive was quiet until it came into the depot; but when the whistle blew, as the engine was stopping, the girl burst out with the exclamation, 'Why, la! she come plum in afore she bellered!'"

ALADDIN'S LAMP IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.—People would hardly believe that there is a man and woman so innocent as the persons referred to below, but that there are such persons the trial of Thomas Hoffman alias Dr. S. Fisher, which took place at Hagerstown, on Wednesday, conclusively shows. The following are the facts:

"Hoffman called at the place of Mr. Solomon Smith, who resides in Rohrersville district, about four miles from Harper's Ferry, on a farm, and put up for two or three days with his horse and buggy. Being a man of apparent education and quite respectable looking, he won the confidence of Mr. Smith. While conversing with the latter (which was done in German or Dutch), he spoke of having read a great deal about the country in which Mr. S. resided and that he had learned from his reading that the early settlers had buried large amounts of money in that part of the country, and that he thought there was $20,000 or $25,000 in gold upon Mr. S.'s farm. He then told him if he had thirty pieces of silver, or its equivalent, he could recover this gold, and quoted Scripture to show how it was to be done.

Mr. Smith borrowed money from his neighbors and made up the amount required, $500. He then gave it to the Dr., who apparently wrapped it and his (the Doctor's) watch up in a cloth and put them in a small box, which after tying securely he gave in charge of Mrs. Smith, who hid it that night in the stove in her bed-room. The next morning she put it in a bureau drawer, which she locked, and the key of which she kept constantly about her person. That morning the Doctor left, promising to return in twenty days and assist in finding the gold. The twenty days having elapsed, and the Doctor not arriving, Mr. S. opened the box and found nothing in it but a bundle of rags and a round stone. Recently he found the Doctor in Martinsburg, had him arrested, taken to Hagerstown, where, as above stated, he was tried on Wednesday and convicted of larceny."

AT NIGHT.—Here is one of Thackeray's pleasant touches:

"It is night now; and here is home. Gathered under the quiet roof, elders and children lie alike at rest. In the midst of a great peace and calm, the stars look out from the heavens. The silence is peopled with the past; sorrowful remorses for sins and shortcomings, memories of passionate joys and griefs rise out of their graves, but now alike calm and sad. Eyes as I shut mine, look at me that have long ceased to shine. The town and fair landscape sleep under the starlight wreathed in the autumn mists. Twinkling among the houses a light keeps watch, here and there, in what may be a sick chamber or two. The clock tolls sweetly in the silent air. Here is night and rest. An awful sense of thanks makes the heart swell, and the head bow, as I pass to my room through the sleeping house and feel as though a hushed blessing was upon it."

ROWLAND HILL was in the habit of taking nearly everything he saw or heard into the pulpit, and using it in his sermons. When preaching on the government of the temper' he said: "I once took tea with an old lady who was very particular about her china. The servant, unfortunately, broke the best bread-and-butter plate; but her mistress took very little notice of the circumstance at the time, only remarking, 'Never mind, Mary: accidents cannot be avoided.' 'My word, but I shall have it by and by,' said the girl, when she got out of the room. And so it turned out. The old lady's temper was corked up for a season' but it came out with terrible vengeance when the company [illegible]

At [illegible] point of the common measure of life, but half are still upon the road. Faster and faster, as the ranks grow thinner, they that remain till now become weary, and rise no more. At threescore and ten a band of some four hundred yet struggle on. At ninety, these have been reduced to a handful of thirty trembling patriarchs. Year after year they fall in diminishing numbers. SECRETARY BOUTWELL on Saturday addressed the Boston Shoe and Leather Association on the subject of the decline of American commerce and the reduction and funding of the public debt. The Secretary thinks the first step to be taken in regard to the public debt is to bring the public credit up to par, and this can be done either by reducing the debt by continuing the redemption of bonds, or by reducing the rate of interest. He is confident that a great reduction in the interest account can be made without reference to the war in Europe, but does not say that any offers have been made in this country or elsewhere for the low interest bonds authorized at the late session of Congress.

RELIABLE information from the South is to the effect that the crops for this year are unusually good. The grain crops are already secured, and are very large. Last year the people of most of the Gulf States imported grain from the North as high as $1.75 a bushel. Dealers are now offering to contract for the delivery of new corn at eighty-five. Wheat is selling at Atlanta at $1.25, and it is thought that the State of Georgia will have a considerable surplus for export. This condition of things will be a great relief to the South. The cotton crop, moreover, promises to be larger than any that has been raised in twenty years.

A RATHER neat bit of juvenile humor says the Springfield Republican, was in a reply of a boy in that city to his excellent mother when she tried to "point a moral." He had gratefully admired the artistic way in which pants were mended after a tearful accident, and she had the moment of advantage to show him how careless he was and now careful he ought to be. He had heard the little lecture attentively, and then remarked, in a reproachful tone: "Well, mother; it's evident you can't bear praising."

A dangerous counterfeit fifty cent fractional currency note of the old issue has been put in circulation, which closely resembles the genuine. The paper used in the genuine is pink tinted, but the counterfeit is slightly greenish in color, and the face is somewhat blurred. The Star and Sentinel.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUG. 26, 1870.

D. A. BUEHLER, Editor and Business Agent.

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

OUR CANDIDATES.

In our local columns will be found the proceedings of the Republican County Convention, on Monday last. Entire harmony characterized the doings of the Convention, and the most hopeful feeling prevailed among the delegates. The ticket put in nomination is an excellent one in every respect, combining personal popularity, marked integrity, and eminent fitness for the several positions.

Col. EPHRAIM MYERS, the nominee for Assembly, is a successful and prominent Merchant of Littlestown, thoroughly identified with the large business interests connected with the railroad and other improvements in the southern section of the county. He is a gentleman of intelligence and integrity, and active business habits. He commands the confidence of his immediate fellow-citizens, and will undoubtedly make a good poll. His strength was well tested in the warm political contest of 1861, when he was elected County Commissioner, although the Democrats swept the county. The only offices carried by the Republicans was Commissioner and County Treasurer—the latter by 15 votes. Mr. Myers was the highest candidate on the Republican ticket, beating his opponent 78 votes, while the Democratic majority ranged from 50 to 60.

Messrs. JOSEPH BAILEY and J. WATSON BARR, the nominees for Commissioner and Director of the Poor, are both successful farmers, of rare intelligence and high integrity, against neither of whom can aught be said, and whose pre-eminent fitness for the trusts which it is proposed to confide to them must be acknowledged by friend and foe. If elected, the people of the county can rest assured that neither extravagance or mismanagement will be tolerated in either of the County Boards.

The same may be said of Messrs. JOHN D. BECKER and G. W. LOTT, the nominees for Jury Commissioner and Auditor. Both possess enviable reputations for integrity, intelligence and courtesy. Mr. Becker has a large acquaintance in the county, which will aid him in making judicious selections of Jurors. Mr. Lott is a good accountant, well qualified to bring in careful review the complex accounts incident to the administration of county affairs.

The Resolutions adopted by the Convention have the true ring, and compare favorably with the non-comittal, antideluvan platform of the opposition. Instead of igoring, they manfully meet the issues of the day. The administration of President Grant and Gov. Geary are cordially endorsed—the Congressional policy of Re-construction is approved, and the 15th Constitutional Amendment affirmed as a final settlement of a long continued and dangerous agitation. While the Democratic Convention was profoundly and ominously silent on the subject of the great nine millions swindle of the last Legislature, and had not a word to say in denunciation of the votes of our Representatives in favor of the swindle, the Republicans of the county put them squarely on the record—denounce the attempted outrage of last winter, and pledge our nominee, if elected, sternly to resist that and all other schemes tending to impair the integrity of the Sinking Fund or work a perversion of the State funds.

With such a ticket and such a platform, the Republicans of Adams county can go confidently before the people, and ought to command success.

ALTHOUGH the Republican County Convention gave no formal expression on the Congressional question, the Conferees appointed are understood to be favorable to Mr. CESSNA. His re-nomination is conceded all around. Each county in the district has either formally declared for him or appointed Conferees favorable to his nomination. A formal meeting of the Conferees is therefore hardly necessary. The representatives of the several counties could unite in a written declaration of his unanimous nomination as the candidate of the Republican party. We accordingly suggest this plan. We have purposely refrained from any agitation of the matter, until the County Convention should take action. Now that the question is practically settled, we feel free to enter into an earnest and cordial advocacy of Mr. CESSNA's re-election. We are well aware that our opponents have calculated largely on supposed disaffection in the Republican ranks, growing out of disappointments in the distribution of Post-office and Internal Revenue appointments, most of which were necessarily controlled by Mr. CESSNA as the representative of this district. He had to make his selections among numerous deserving applicants. We have no question that in all these appointments Mr. CESSNA was prompted by the very best of motives and by a desire to promote the interests of the Republican party. That there should be disappointments and in some case temporary disaffection, was to be expected in any contingency, where all could not be accommodated. But we feel equally well assured that our political opponents utterly misjudge the integrity of the Republican party and the devotion of its adherents to the great principles which have guided its policy, if they calculate on receiving the least aid and comfort on this score.

Mr. CESSNA is a pronounced Republican, and thoroughly devoted to the Republican cause. His career in Congress has not only most signally attested his fidelity, but the proninenee given him on Committees and the leading position occupied by him in the debates on the floor of the House, are a marked concession to his abilities and usefulness. Few, if any, members of Congress have so promptly moved to the front rank and achieved a position of leadership in the first term. This Mr. CESSNA has done. The past is but a sure promise of the future.

When the Democratic party proved faithless to its trust, bankrupted the Government, and became an ally of Treason and Rebellion, Mr. CESSNA withdrew from it, and gave his support to the party of freedom. It is because of this patriotic step and his fearless advocacy of Republican principles that the Copperhead press now so persistently hounds him. There is no man whose defeat would carry into the enemy's camp more real joy. No true Republican can afford thus to gratify a party which to-day arraigns the entire policy of the Republican party, fiercely denounces the men who saved the Republic from overthrow, and would, if successful in winning the control of the Government, remand the country to Rebel domination.

We feel perfectly safe in pledging for Mr. CESSNA the full and earnest support of the Republicans of Adams county.

THE NATIONAL BANK INTEREST.

The "National Labor" Congress, recently in session, in one of its resolutions demanded the abolition of the National Banks. The Indiana Democrats, in their State Convention held January 8th last, resolved in favor of the abolition of the National Bank system because it is "organized in the interest of the bondholders," and demanded that "greenbacks" should be issued in the place of their notes—those vile "greenbacks" against which every Copperhead in the country arrayed himself in 1862 as an unconstitutional currency! The Ohio Democrats, in their State Convention held June 18th last, took precisely the same ground—demanding the "immediate repeal of the law creating National Banks," and the substitution for their notes, of "treasury notes of the United States."

All the Democrats in Congress voted against the new Banking and Currency Act on the ground that it extended the National Bank System, which they were anxious to see abolished; and they all voted for a resolution, January 17th last, directing the Banking Committee to report "a bill providing for withdrawing from circulation the National Bank Currency, and for issuing, instead of such currency, treasury notes, usually known as 'greenbacks.'" Among the affirmative votes on this proposition, were all the Eastern Democrats except Barnum, of Conn., and Potter, of New York. Messrs. Getz, Haldeman, Randall, Reading, Stiles, Van Auken, and Woodward, of Pennsylvania, all helped to swell the column of fifty-four Democrats who endorsed the proposition, which was offered by Mr. McNeely, of Illinois. Mr. Cessna and all the other Pennsylvania Republicans voted against it.

These votes give clear indications that, should the Democracy get power, they will undertake to tamper with our currency, and begin by overturning the National Banks. Were there no other reason, it is enough for them, that these Banks were not invented by the Democracy, and were the right-arm of the Nation during the struggle with the Rebellion.

Should Mr. McSHERRY, or Mr. McLELLAN be the candidate of the Democracy in this district, the interests of the one as a National Bank Director and of the other as a National Bank President—and of both as stockholders—would prove an embarrassment in the way of their joining in this pre-determined crusade, but the party lash would no doubt soon bring them up to the mark.

It is certain, that persons who have interests in these Banks, have reason to be somewhat apprehensive of hostile legislation, at the hands of their enemies if placed in power, and they would do well to see where the path of safety is.

THE Democratic Conferees of Adams county were badly sold last week. Full of the idea of nominating Mr. McSherry, they repaired, as fast as steam and rail could carry them, to Bloody Run, Bedford county, on Thursday of last week, the time and place fixed for the Conference. Reaching Bloody Run, they found they had come on a fool's errand. No conferees were there. It turned out that the day had been changed by the other counties, and that without consulting or even notifying the Adams county men. Messrs. White, Myers and Shorb accordingly returned home, their enthusiasm somewhat abated. Evidently Mr. McSherry and his friends are not in the "ring."

THE Democrats of this region don't have a word to say against Land Grants to Railroads, since they discovered that Mr. Cessna voted against them. As long as they supposed he was for them, they were furious in denunciation!—Considerate men, these Copperhead editors.

THE next Legislature of this State will have the apportionment of the Congressional and Legislative districts, the first for the next ten years, the second for seven. Both of these are now fixed by the same Legislature for the first time since 1801. The same thing will not occur again until 1941

THE movement for a convention to revise our State Constitution is gathering importance as the day of election approaches. In some of the counties its advisability is being made an issue in the primary selection of candidates for the State Legislature.

THE Franklin county Democrats beseechingly call upon all "Conservatives" to come up and help them to put down the Radicals.

"Step into my parlor, Mr. Fly," said the Spider.

AUDITOR.

Mr. Lott was unanimously nominated.

The nominations of Messrs. Myers, Bailey, Barr and Becker were also made unanimous.

A. J. Cover, Esq., from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by the Republicans of Adams County, That the administration of President Grant is redeeming all its promises, and by its rigid enforcement of law, by its honest collection and disbursement of the revenue, by its payment of the National debt at the rate of over One Hundred and Fifty Millions of Dollars a year, and by the rapid reduction of Taxation, has vindicated the wisdom of the people in the election of 1868.

Resolved, That the Republican members of the 41st Congress deserve the cordial thanks and gratitude of the country for their steady and manly support of the principles and policy essential to complete the work of Re-construction inaugurated by their predecessors, and to secure the fruits of the War for a suppression of the Slaveholder's Rebellion.

Resolved, That the administration of Gov. Geary is richly entitled to approval; and specially do we commend his courageous veto of the bill known as the "nine million steal."

Resolved, That we condemn unqualifiedly the votes of Senator Duncan and Assemblymen Dill in sustaining this corrupt and infamous measure; and we instruct our Candidate for Assembly, if elected, to vote against that or any other bill which proposes to divert the bonds owned by the Commonwealth from the Sinking Fund, or to apply them to any other than the purpose of paying the State debt, for which the sinking fund was devised.

Resolved, That the equal suffrage provided by the Fifteenth Amendment was necessary to prevent Rebel domination in the Southern States; simply restores the practice of the Government in its earliest periods; is just in itself; and should be acquisced in by every good citizen, since it has finally closed the most distracting and dangerous question ever presented to the American people.

Resolved, That while the Democracy, in portions of the Northern States, are refusing thus to acquesce in what is a practically irrepealable adjustment of this question, and are seeking to continue the further agitation of the Negro Question, it is well to remember that the Democracy of the Southern States are "accepting the situation," are courting the Colored vote, are receiving, in some States, large portions of it, and are pledging themselves to sustain the colored man, in all his rights—this spectacle of a "divided house" being an apt illustration of the mockery of Democratic professions, faithlessness of Democratic policy, and the untrust-worthiness of Democratic politicians.

Resolved, That the Border damage Claims are justly due from the State; are besides a debt of honor which a great State ought not refuse to pay, and that to all honorable means to pass such a bill we pledge the support of our voice and vote.

Resolved, That the rapid increase of the debt of the County, long denied but now admitted, and the enormous increase of the County Taxes, call loudly for such a verdict at the polls, as will break up the incompetent and extravagant Ring of politicians who are responsible for these gross abuses.

Resolved, That the tax payers are entitled to know how their money is spent, and we demand of the County Commissioners in the future, intelligible statements showing the County expenditures in detail, both in the Commissioners' office, and the Poor House, that the people may know how much each officer of the County receives from the County, and to what extent each class of expenses is a burden upon the taxpayers, and we demand that there shall be no more concealment of it.

Resolved, That the County Ticket, this day nominated, is entitled to receive the support of every man, who desires County affairs economically conducted, and its election would be a practical step in the direction of thorough and much needed reform.

Resolved, That D. A. Buehler, Esq., be appointed Representative delegate to the next State Convention to be held in 1871.

Resolved, That John M. Krauth, Paul Hersh and Wm. King, be appointed Congressional Conferees.

Resolved, That we recommend to our Republican friends in the several Boroughs and Townships, to meet at the usual places of nominating Township tickets, on Saturday the 1st of October, to nominate candidates to be supported for Township offices.

On motion of Mr. Hersh, the delegates from the several districts were authorized to names the members of the County Committee, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

A WEEK OF BATTLES.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES.

SUCCESSIVE FRENCH DEFEATS.

BAZAINE SHUT UP AT METZ.

THE FRENCH TROOPS DEMORALIZED.

CHALONS EVACUATED BY THE FRENCH.

PRUSSIANS MARCHING ON PARIS.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR PEACE.

There have been a daily succession of heavy battles since Sunday between Metz and Chalons, between the French and Prussians. McMahon having been utterly defeated and his corps crushed by the Crown Prince commanding the Prussian left, at Woerth and Haguenau, retreated through Luneville, Nancy, Commercy, and thence to Chalons, closely pursued by the Crown Prince. The advance cavalry of the latter appeared as early as Sunday 14th at Blesme, 28 miles east of Chalons. On the same day Prince Charles Frederick and Gen. Steinmetz commanding the Prussian right and centre, appeared in front of Metz, and gave battle to Generals Bazaine and Frozzard, driving the French under the walls of the fortress. On Saturday night Bazaine evacuated Metz and sought to form a junction with McMahon at Chalons, by the road leading through Verdun, but encountered the Prussians who had crossed the Moselle between Metz and Nancy and endeavored to seize the road from Metz to Verdun, by which Bazaine wished to retreat. On this road a succession of battles occurred on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—Bazaine making desperate efforts to fight his way through, and Prince Frederick Charles being evidently determined to crush Bazaine by a succession of heavy blows and to defeat at all hazards his junction with Chalons. The Battle of Monday was under the western walls of Metz; that of Tuesday was at Gravelotte, four miles west of Metz; that on the 17th inst., was at Mars La Tour, six miles from Metz, while of the 18th that took place at Rezonsville, near Gravelotte. King William commanded in person at the latter battle, which was a desperate struggle of nine hours, and on Thusday night telegraphed that the French were utterly routed, Bazaine being driven back into Metz, and the road to Verdun being in the possession of the Prussians. The slaughter has been heavy on both sides. On Friday the Crown Prince again engaged McMahon in the vicinity of Bar de Luc, east of Chalons, and again totally defeated him.

MONDAY, Aug. 22.—Since Sunday, 14th inst., there have been daily conflicts, the possession of the field of battle often changing, but the general advantage in each resting with the Prussians. The battles have been fought on a line thirty miles in length, extending from Gravellotte, ten miles northwest of Metz, to the neighborhood of Bar le Duc, in a southwesterly direction. The battles in the vicinity of Bar le Duc have been fought by the Crown Prince against the corps of McMahon and Failly, with whatever reinforcements they may have received on their hurried retreat from Hagenau, and those around and to the westward of Metz by the centre and right of the army, commanded by Von Steinmetz and Prince Frederick Charles, against the main body of the French army under Bazaine. McMahon's command appears to be utterly disorganized, one Paris despatch reporting that a portion of it has taken refuge in the Vosges mountains, through which it had already passed on the retreat. At all events it has been cut off by the Crown Prince from joining the main army, while the latter has been forced into Metz. The battles of the week culminated in a tremendous contest near the little villages of Rezonville and Gravellotte ten miles west of Metz on the road towards Verdun, on Thursday, the 18th, and very probably also on Friday. King William sends a despatch concerning this, battle. in which he states that the combat lasted for nine hours, and that the French were totally routed and thrown back on Metz.

By French sources we have actually no account of this battle, except that Count Palikao has made in the Corps Legislatif an indefinite statement that the Prussians were not victorious on Friday. He admits, however, that they were successful at Bar de-Luc, which was one of the battles before referred to as having been fought by the Crown Prince to the southwestward of Metz. Other despatches say that the Prussians have possession of the fortress of Verdun. On Saturday afternoon, however, the people of Paris became apprised of the defeat of the French army, and an immense excitement was aroused. They refused to any longer believe the satements of the Ministers regarding field opertions, and Revolutionary and Orleanist demonstrations were openly made on the Boulevards. Paris despatches now place the apvance of the Prussians as far west as Vitry, less than ten miles from Chalon.

The deduction, in short, to be drawn from our present information is that a portion of the Prussian army will remain to imprison Bazaine inside the walls of Metz, and that another column is pushing direct towards Paris, probably by way of Challons, perhaps to the southward of it. Genral Trochu publishes a proclamation to the people of Paris which tells them indirectly they must be prepared for a siege of the city. The magnificent woods of Boulogne have been cut down to clear the field for military operations, something that could only have been done in an emergency.

We have nothing of Napoleon's movements except he is now at Chalons, unnoticed and unthought of. Of the royal personage there are a quantity of contradictory despatches, out of which it is useless to attempt to eliminate the truth. Statements from London positively assert that the English Government has offered its service as a mediator of peace, the Queen having written an autograph letter to King Willam. The deposition of Napolean and the secession of Alsace and Lorraine to Prussia are regarded favorably in England. Austria will also unite in an attempt to save Paris. The intelligence regarding the Empress Engenie shows that she has giving up all hope, and is ready to fly from Paris. The important fortress of Pfalzbourg, in the Vosges Mountains, has been surrendered to the Wurtemburg army. The garrisson at Strasbourg has been summoned to surrender, and the Prussian lines are closing in around it on all sides. There are also evidences of the advance of a south German army in the vicinity of Mulhouse.

A LULL IN FIGHTING.—FACTS AND RUMORS.

TUESDAY, Aug. 23.—There appears to be a lull in the great contest, no reports of fighting being received from any quarter. In London it is stated that reliable advices from the seat of war show that the Prussian commanders are seeking to effectually surround Marshall Bazaine so that reinforcements will be unable to join him. The Crown Prince is pushing on towards Paris, his pickets having appeared at St. Dizier, a town on the river Marne, 85 miles southeast of Chalons, and 115 miles southeast of Paris.

The losses in the recent battles are said to have been enormous.

Paris continues to prepare for a vigorous defence, and one report places the number of troops in that vicinity at upwards of three hundred thousand. The Constitutionel publishes a circular from the Minister of the Interior to prefects of departments, announcing that orders have been given for a distribution of arms to the people from the arsenal.

The Minister continues: "Arm without delay. We are in a crisis when all must come forward for the defence of the country. Inflame the young men by your patriotism, and use every means to make soldires of them."

It is now said that Ollivier is still in Paris, and is seriously ill of brain fever.

Contradictory statements continue to be made about the emperor. It is quite certain his power is rapidly on the decay. General Trochu is the chief authority in the French capital, and it is alleged that he is privately preparing the way for the restoration of the Orleans family to power.

A letter from Queen Victoria to the Empress Eugenie, dated August 15, appeared at Berlin yesterday, relating to meditation. She regrets her inability to mediate. She intimates that that is an affair for the Cabinet, and the Cabinet thinks the time inopportune.

It is reported in London that the minister of Prussia at Florence has communicated to the Italian government a copy of the note inviting a conference of the Great Powers for the consideration of the internal condition of France, and what steps may be necessary to prevent anarchy.

A telegram from Vienna states that the Austrian Germans have pronounced in favor of Germany in the present war. A proclamation is said to have been issued there calling upon all their patriotic brethren to rally to the support of Prussia and Germany unity.

Prince Napoleon is at Florence. His mission is to demand the mediation of Italy.

CONTRADICTORY DESPATCHES.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 4 2.—The reports from the field of operations are very contradictory. Yesterday's London despatches represent that Bazaine has moved out of Metz to the north, by way of Thionville, to Montmedy, where he was joined by McMahon, who, in order to form a junction with Bazaine, had moved from Chalons around Verdun to the Northwest. Montmedy is about 25 miles north of Verdun and about 50 miles from Metz. The same despatches represent that the Crown Prince, in consequence of this new French move, has discontinued his march on Paris and moved northward to the support of the Prince Frederick Charles and Gen. Steinmetz.

On the other hand, Paris despatches say that Bazaine was still at Metz, closely invested by Prince Frederick Charles and Gen. Steinmetz—that the Crown Prince's headquarters were at Bar-de-luc, southeast of Chalons, and that McMahon was retreating on Paris. A heavy rain fell during Monday night, which will probably interfere with the movements of the armies. The general headquarters of the French army on Sunday night were near Rheims, twenty miles southwest of Montmedy.—Several statements in Paris papers of yesterday show that fear and respect of the Emperor have alike ceased to exist. Le Temps says that no victory can be won until the Emperor and Prince Imperial are banished from the army, and the correspondent of Le Siecle writes that at headquarters of the army the deepest depression prevails and the Emperor receives nobody.

THE LATEST.—NO FURTHER FIGHTING.

THURSDAY, AUG. 25.—Despatches from London say that there has been no removal of fighting, both sides being occupied with the burial of the dead, the removal of the wounded and reorganizing. Bazaine was still at Metz, the Prussians holding the road to Verdun. McMahon had broken camp at Chalons, and moved to Reims, north-east of Verdun, evidently seeking to communicate with Bazaine.—It was rumored that either a portion of Bazaine's force at Metz or detachments cut off in the recent battles, (most likely the latter,) were moving along the Belgian frontier towards Reims. Everything indicates that the next battles will take place in the Northern part of France.

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF BOSTON.—Accumulated Assets Jan. 1st 1870, $8,430,000. This Company has a History, being the oldest Mutual life Insurance Company in the country, and is purely mutual.

Its Officers have ever been men of high standing and conservative policy; twenty-seven years experience has shown their management to be both honorable and successful.

The low ratio of expenditures to receipts, averaging only a fraction over nine per cent. and the slight variation in this ratio, from year to year, as shown by the reports of the Company, is a guaranty that their business is conducted systematically and with strictest economy. The stability of the Company, offering as it does absolute security to policy-holders, as shown by the fact of its constantly increasing accumulation of surplus, is a consideration which must have weight with cautious and far seeing men.

The promptness with which the Company has always paid its losses, leaves no uncertainty as to its ability and disposition to act with equal promptness in the settlement of like claims in the future.

Distribution of surplus will be made annually by this company, and will be available one year from the date of the policy in the payment of the 2d annual premium and so on thereafter.

All its policies are nonforfeitable, made so by stringent enactments of the Legislature of the State of Massachusetts. Among its losses for 1869, several policies were paid under the operation of the famous "Massachusetts Law." The holders of these policies had failed to keep up their premiums, and the insurance would have been void under the laws of any other State.

WHAT DID IT?—Lyon's Kathairon made my hair soft, luxuriant and thick, and Hagan's Magnolia Balm changed that sallow complexion into the marble beauty you now see. This is emphatically the language of all who use these articles. A fine head of hair and a refined complexion are the greatest attractions a woman can possess. The Kathairon and Magnolia Balm are just what will give them to you, and nothing else will. The Balm is the bloom of youth. It makes a lady of thirty appear but twenty. Both articles are entirely harmless, and very pleasant. They should be in every lady's possession. aug. 5-1m

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of an order of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the undersigned, Assignee in Bankruptcy of JACOB KELLER, will expose to Public Sale, on the premises, on Friday, the 7th day of October next, 1870, at 2 o'clock, P. M., the Real Estate of Jacob Keller, situated in Union township, Adams county, two miles east of Littlestown, along the Railroad, consisting of two tracts of limestone land as follows:

No. 1. A FARM containing 147 ACRES, of which about 30 Acres are in good timber and the balance in a high state of cultivation; having erected thereon a two-story BRICK DWELLING HOUSE and back buildings, a large frame Bank Barn, a Saw Mill and Chopping Mill, and other outbuildings all in good order.

No. 2. Adjoining the above, containing about 50 ACRES of land, under excellent cultivation, and having erected thereon a two-story FRAME DWELLING HOUSE and back building, frame Bank Barn, Wagon Shed and other necessary buildings. These farms lying contiguous will be sold separate or together as may be deemed most advantageous on the day of sale.

Possession will be given and deed or deeds made in fee simple for the premises, on the 1st of April, 1871, when one-half of the purchase money shall be paid and the balance secured by judgment and paid April 1st, 1872, with interest, or if the purchaser prefer he can pay the whole of the purchase money cash April 1st, 1871. One-half of the fall crop is reserved for the present tenant and the balance will belong to the purchaser. After the property is struck down the purchaser will enter into an agreement to comply with the terms of sale.

Persons desiring information about these farms can address Samuel Ruby, Hellam, York county, Pa., or David Wills, Esq., his attorney, at Gettysburg, and will be shown the farms by Joseph Keller residing on them. SAMUEL RUBY,
Aug. 12–ts Assignee of Jacob Keller.

PUBLIC SALE OF A VALUABLE FARM.

The undersigned will sell at Public Sale, on Thursday, the 8th of September, 1870, at 12 o'clock, M. on the premises, his VALUABLE FARM, situate in Huntington township, Adams county, Pa., on the road leading from Heidlersburg to Wierman's Mill, 1 mile from the Mill, on Bermudian creek, containing 125 ACRES, more or less, adjoining lands of John Knob, John Howe, Jacob Hersh, and others. The Improvements consist of a new two-story BRICK DWELLING, with Basement, containing ten apartments, a new Bank Barn with good Stabling and Graneries, and other outbuildings, three thriving young Apple Orchards and a Peach Orchard of choice fruit, in good bearing order; a good Well and Spring of Water convenient to the House; standing water at the buildings and in the fields. About 15 Acres are in good Timber, 28 in best of Meadow. The farm is in a good state of cultivation, 11,000 bushels of Lime having been put on it. There are 500 panels of good Post fence nearly new. The farm is a good red gravel land, and is susceptible of the highest improvement.

The buildings stand on rising ground, the water from the barn-yard draining into and enriching a 15 acre Meadow. The farm is desirably located, near to Schools, Blacksmith Shops, two Stores and two Churches, and within 4 miles of Lime. The land is rolling and the farm lies beautifully, being almost square. The upland and meadow have a deep black loam soil.

☞The farm will be POSITIVELY SOLD, as I have removed to Cumberland county. It will be sold on reasonable terms, easy to be paid. This can be relied on. Persons wishing to view the premises can do so by calling on Jacob Stevens, residing thereon.

☞If my other farm, containing 75 Acres with Improvements, will please better, I will also offer it on the same day.

☞Attendance will be given and terms made known on day of sale by
Aug. 12–ts JOHN BOLEN.

A RARE CHANCE FOR A VERY VALUABLE FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned offers at Private Sale a very VALUABLE FARM, situate in Tyrone township, Adams county, Pa., ½ mile from Idaville, containing 100 ACRES of Patented Land, of which there are about 25 Acres in excellent Timber. The land is in a high state of cultivation and under the best of fencing, of which the greater part is post fencing. There have been upwards of 4000 bushels of lime put on the farm within the last four years. The soil is copper stone and it produces equal to lime stone. The improvements consist of a two-story STONE DWELLING HOUSE, a never-failing spring with Spring House convenient to the dwelling, frame and log Barn of 90 feet, containing Wagon Shed, Corn Crib, Hog Pen, and all other necessary outbuildings.—Choice trees in prime bearing; also, a young Apple Orchard containing 220 of the choicest of trees coming into bearing; also, an old Apple Orchard, and small fruits in abundance, consisting of Cherries, Pears, Grapes, Plums, &c. The land cannot be suspassed for raising fruit. The farm cannot be surpassed in the County for water.—There are two small streams running through the farm, and never-failing springs of the best of water in every field on the farm, but one. Post Office, Store, Mills of all descriptions, Churches, and School House all convenient.

☞The lime kilns are within 4 miles of the farm, and Hunter's Run Warehouse is within 5 miles. Two trips can be made a day with the team to the Warehouse, which always pays the highest prices for grain.

☞Persons wishing to buy should not fail to examine the above property. ISAAC GROUPE.

VALUABLE FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned, Executrix of the Will of JAMES TOWNSEND, deceased, in accordance with said Will, offers at Private Sale the valuable Farm on which she now resides, belonging to the heirs of James Townsend, situated in Reading township, Adams county, Pa., about 1¼ miles north of Hampton, 4 miles from York Sulphur Springs and ¼ mile from the Baltimore and Carlisle pike, containing 201 ACRES, more or less. This is commonly know as the "Old Round Hill Farm." It is mostly of the granite soil, has been heavily limed and manured, and is in a high state of cultivation. There are about 160 Acres of good farming land, and 40 Acres of good timber. The farm is well watered with springs and running water; a never-failing spring of excellent water about 25 yards from the door; also, another very large and strong spring about ¼ mile from the house, from which the water runs to the house continually, forced by a hydraulic Ram, which has been in successful operation for over twenty years. There is a barrel of excellent water standing in the kitchen all the time, suitable for cooking or washing. From the house the water is carried by lead pipe to a trough in the barn yard, thus furnishing plenty of water all the time for all the stock. The buildings are a large two-story STONE DWELLING HOUSE, a good sized Stone Barn, a large framed Stable with stabling for 6 horses; Hay Mows, Straw Shed, &c., Wagon Shed, Grain House, Machine House, Shop, Smoke House, Spring House, Hog House, and other necessary buildings—all under pine shingle roof.—There is a No. 1 Apple Orchard in good bearing order; also, Peaches, Pears, Plums, Cherries, &c., in abundance. This desirable farm is very conveniently located in regard to Churches, School Houses, Stores, Grist Mills, Saw Mills, Blacksmith Shops, &c.

All persons desirous of purchasing such a farm are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. They will find it as represented.—Terms easy and reasonable. A portion of the money can remain in the farm, if desired. There is no widow's dower in it, and title will be made free from all incumbrance.

Some very fine specimens of Magnetic Iron Ore have been found on the farm.

Any person desiring further information, (if it is not convenient for them to call,) may obtain it by letter by addressing

COW KILLED.—We learn that a valuable Cow belonging to Jacob Furney, of Mountjoy township, was struck by lightning last week in a pasture field and instantly killed.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The new brick cottage of Hon. Robert McCurdy, on Carlisle street, is now under roof. It promises to be an attractive residence.

Abraham Krise has begun the erection of a brick Dwelling on the opposite side of the road, between the residences of Prof. Ehrehart and Mr. Montfort.

David Sterner's new brick residence on Chambersburg street is approaching completion.

CENSUS STATISTICS.—Capt. C. G. Miller sends us the following statistics of Straban township:—Families 327; dwellings 325; white males 739, females 798; colored males 5, females 1; total population 1543. In 1860 Straban had a population of 1466—increase in ten years 77.

Mr. Chamberlin sends us the following items for Franklin township:—Dwellings 425; families 453; population 2,176, including 13 colored; deaths during the year 21, births 84, marriages 26; persons over 10 years of age unable to read 110, unable to write 226; number of farms 240.

In 1860, Franklin had a population of 2,114—increase in ten years 61.

Mr. Davis, having completed his district, sends us the data of Latimore township, viz: dwellings 246; families 253; male inhabitants 596, female 634—total population 1230.

In 1860, Latimore had a population of 1197—showing a gain of 33.

BASE BALL.—A game of Base Ball was played at East Berlin, on Saturday last, between the "Junior Red Stockings," of that place, and "Dexter Club" of New Oxford, the latter winning the game, scoring 17 runs to 6 for the Red Stockings. The latter is a recently organized club and we understand played remarkably well for beginners. A correspondent writes in high terms of the courtesy and gentlemanly bearing of the Oxford club. The following is the full score:

PREMIUM LIST.—In to-day's issue will be found the Premium List of the Adams County Agricultural Society for the approaching Exhibition. It is very full, and manifests a purpose on the part of the managers to make the Exhibition a success, so far as their agency can command success. Aside from the premiums offered, every citizen should feel sufficent county pride to contribute his influence and labors towards getting up a creditable exhibition. The ladies especially could do much towards attaining this result by contributing specimens of embroidery, needle-work, worsted work, &c. There is ample time for all to do something.

We learn that JAMES J. WILLS, Esq., of this place, has been appointed Chief Marshal, in the room of Col. Wolford, declined.

ATTRACTIVE MUSIC.—One of the attractive features at the Springs Hotel, during the last week, has been the capital music of the band of Italian Minstrels, who, with two violins, and two grand harps and eminent musical talent, daily entertain the guests and visitors. During the evenings, what with this music, hops, dancings, &c., they have been having a gay and festive time at the Springs. We are glad to learn that the number of visitors to the Springs Hotel continues large, the success of the house being assured. We hear on all sides the most marked commendations of the successful management of the hotel this season by Mr. Hoppes and his excellent lady. All admit it to be a first-class Hotel in all its appointments, surpassed by none of the noted fashionable summer resorts.

SUICIDE.—A melancholy case of suicide took place in Tyrone township, on Monday morning last. Mr. George Mackley, an aged and highly respected farmer, has been laboring under depression of spirits, with a suicidal tendency, for some months, so much so as to excite uneasiness among his friends. On Monday Mr. Mackley ate breakfast as usual with his family. Shortly after, Mr. Peter Miller drove up to the house, and left a couple of children to spend the day. Between nine and ten o'clock, Mrs. Mackley, who had procured some nuts for the children, went with them to the black-smith shop to get a hammer. Missing her husband, she went to the Cooper Shop, across the road from the house, and was horrified to find her husband dead. He owned a small shot gun, which he had loaded with buck-shot. The position of the body and other indications showed that he held the muzzel of the gun to his head with his left hand, his right on the trigger. The gun being discharged the charge passed through his brain, the shot lodging in the ceiling. Instant death must have ensued. Mrs. M. imediately gave the alarm, by ringing the large dinner bell, which summoned the neighbors. It is a most melancholy case. Mr. Mackley was 73 years of age, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him, being a gentleman of most exemplary character. Recently he filled the office of Director of the Poor. Last week he was in Gettysburg attending Court, and Mr. Johns, the Steward of the Almshouse and an old personal friend, accompanied him part of the way home. On the way, Mr. Mackley manifested deep depression of spirits, having morbid apprehensions of coming to want. Mr. Johns endeavored to relieve his mind and counselled strongly against the idea of self-destruction. There can be no doubt that the deceased was laboring under a species of insanity, brought on by morbid apprehensions of pecuniary difficulty, apprehensions which were groundless. The discharge of the gun was not heard by the family, and the first they knew of it was the finding of the body by Mrs. Mackley.

An inquest was held on the body by Esquire Pittenturf, which rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. The remains were intered, on Tuesday, at St. Paul's (Lutheran) church in New Chester, attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends—Rev. Mr. Honeycutt, of the Lutheran church, and Rev. Mr. Davis, of the Reformed church, officiating.

IDENTIFIED.—Last week we noticed the arrest, by Detective Rouzer, of a stranger who gave his name as Ross, on suspicion of being a horse-thief. He had in his possession a fine Bay Mare. Mr. Rouzer, being satisfied that it was a stolen animal, started a trail, and at Washington, D. C., learned from the Mayor that he had notice of a mare, answering to the description of the captured animal, having been stolen in Fairfax county, Va. The owner was telegraphed to, and came to Gettysburg on Tuesday with Mr. Rouzer, and at once identified the mare as his property. Ross, who was still in jail, owned up and agreed to accompany Mr. Rouzer to Virginia. They left on Wednesday morning. Ross admits to being connected with a gang of horse-thieves who operate on a line from Virginia, through Maryland, to Pennsylvania.

During his investigations, Mr. Rouzer got on the trail of Wm. Wible's stolen horse, which he traced to Baltimore, where he was shipped on the steam-boat Louisiana to Norfolk. He was in the possession of a man named Pine, who belongs to the gang of which Ross speaks and whom Ross admits knowing well. Pine offered the Wible horse for sale in Norfolk, but not securing a purchaser moved on to Portsmouth, and thence into the famous Dismal Swamp, where Mr. Rouzer lost the trail.

THE MENAGERIE COMING.—On Tuesday next Van Amburg & Co's grand Menagerie will exhibit in Gettysburg without fail. Last week we spoke of the merits of this colossal exhibition of animated nature, so can only repeat our advice to all, old and young, to go and see it. It is the largest collection of living animals, birds, &c. in the country, numbering over 500 specimens. There is no Circus connected with it, the proprietors relying on the essential merits of the Menagerie to attract attention and command approval. We notice that our exchanges, where Van Amburg & Co., have exhibited, speak in the highest terms of it, as full realizing all that was promised. It may be a long time before our people will have a similiar opportunity to see so large a collection of animals, and no one should fail to embrace the present opportunity. See advertisement.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—The season for advertising Real Estate is at hand, and the reader will find in our colums notices of a number of desirable properties, some at public and some at private sale. We advise all who want to purchase farms or to invest in real estate, to examine these advertisements. For convenience we give in another column our usual tabular statement of the sales thus advertised.

The large circulation of the STAR AND SENTINEL in Adams and adjoining counties makes it a valuable advertising medium. When a man wants to sell goods or property, the larger the number of persons whose attention he can command the better; and in this respect our columns present an opportunity of reaching the great mass of business men, capitalists, and farmers, which cannot otherwise be secured. Every dollar spent in judicious advertising, pays well to the advertiser.

SALES.—Jesse Eppelman, Esq., has purchased of Amos Lefever, Esq., a tract of of five acres of land, in Union township, at $200 per acre.

John Culp, of M., has purchased the two buildings of Wm. F. Baker, on York street, recently sold at Sheriff's sale to the Gettysburg Building Association. Price $1660.

P. D. W. Hankey has purchased the property of Francis N. Martin, on York street, recently sold at Sheriff's sale to Col. C. H. Buehler. Price $1450.

Henry Garlach has purchased the property of A. R. Feistel on Breckenridge street, recently sold at Sheriff's sale to the Gettysburg Building Association. Price $580.

CIRCUS IN TROUBLE.—Gardner & Forepaugh's Circus and Menagerie, advertised to be in Gettysburg on Wednesday last, didn't come. At Lancaster the circus was levied on by the Sheriff for a debt of $14,000, and its appointments broken up. The difficulty was adjusted, by which the concern passes under new management for re-organization. This is a different show from that of Van Amburg & Co., which will exhibit in Gettysburg on Tuesday.

[For the Star and Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITOR:—I have seen numerous snake stories in your columns during this season, but none to beat this one. Frederick Cerswell and brother, of Straban township, last Sunday, while on their way to Flat Bush Sabbath School, killed a Copperhead Snake, which measured 3 feet 9½ inches in length, with twenty three young ones measuring 7 inches each in length, making in all 17 feet 2½ inches of snake. Your informant can vouch for the truthfulness of the story, as he saw the snakes and measured them.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and everything that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or be the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or of all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

All Articles and Animals for Exhibition must be properly entered at the Business office. The Grounds and Buildings will be opened on Monday the 26th of September, to receive them; and trusty persons employed by the Society, will assign them places and guard the grounds. Articles shipped beforehand will be properly cared for.

No entry for competition will be made after Tuesday; nor can anything entered be removed from the grounds till the close of the Fair, without permission of the President.

The Judges are requested to present themselves at the Business Office, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, and to report their awards to the Secretary before 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday.

Articles and animals can only be entered to compete in one class, and no one can have two premiums awarded to it.

During the examination of horses, no person excepting those having charge of the stock, judges and officers attending to their duties, will, under any pretence or excuse, be admitted within the ring.

Hay, straw and water will be supplied free of charge, for all animals entered for premiums; and grain will be provided at the lowest cost price, for those who desire to purchase.

All articles and animals entered for exhibition free of charge.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will be furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number; and these cards must not be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangements, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals or articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person proving refractory will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Persons renting refreshment booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks.

Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges; in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry, or any other important matter, which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.

THE GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS.

MORE THAN 500,000 PERSONS Bear testimony to their wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE A GENTLE PURGATIVE AS WELL AS A TONIC, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞Send for circular.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of POOR RUM, WHISKEY, PROOF SPIRITS, AND REFUSE LIQUORS, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, FREE FROM ALCOHOLIC STIMULANTS. They are the GREAT BLOOD-PURIFIER and LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters, according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

FOR INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, AND GOUT, DYSPEPSIA, OR INDIGESTION, BILIOUS, REMITTENT, AND INTERMITTENT FEVERS, DISEASES OF THE BLOOD, LIVER, KIDNEYS, AND BLADDER these BITTERS have been most successful.—SUCH DISEASES are caused by VITIATED BLOOD, which is generally produced by derangement of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, these Bitters have no equal. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French, and Spanish.

Turner's Tic Douloureux,

OR UNIVERSAL

NEURALGIA PILL.

A safe, certain and speedy cure for Neuralgia and all Nervous diseases. Its effects are magical.

It is an unfailing remedy in all cases of Neuralgia Facialis, often effecting a perfect cure in less than twenty-four hours, from the use of no more than two or three pills.

No other form of Neuralgia or Nervous Disease has failed to yield to this wonderful remedial agent.

Even in the severest cases of Chronic Neuralgia and general nervous derangements,—of many years standing—affecting the entire system, its use for a few days, or a few weeks at the utmost, always affords the most astonishing relief, and very rarely fails to produce a complete and permanent cure.

It contains no drugs or other materials in the slightest degree injurious, even to the most delicate system, and can always be used with perfect safety.

It has long been in constant use by many of our most eminent physicians, who give it their unanimous and unqualified approval. The following, among many of our best citizens testify to its wonderful efficacy:

"Having used Dr. Turner's Tic-Douloureux or Universal Neuralgia Pill personally,—and in numerous instances recommended it to patients suffering with neuralgia—I have found it, without an exception, to accomplish all the proprietors have claimed. J. R. DILLINGHAM, Dentist.
12 Winter Street, Boston, Feb. 18th, 1867."

Mr. J. M. R. STORY, for many years an apothecary in this city, and for three years during the war, in the Hospital Department under the U. S. Government, thus speaks of it:

"I have known Dr. Turner's Tic-Douloureux or Universal Neuralgia Pill for twenty years. I have sold it and used it personally, and I have never known of a case where it did not give relief.—customers have told me they would not be without it if each pill cost 10 dollars. I think it the most reliable and valuable remedy for neuralgia and nervous diseases in the world."

MESSRS. TURNER & CO.,

For a long time a member of my family has suffered severely with Neuralgia. The pain was almost unendurable. We tried various medicines without success. A few months since, we began the use of your Pill. It has proved perfectly successful, and no traces of the disease remain. I can gladly recommend your remedy to all sufferers from Neuralgia. Respectfully yours,
F. W. PELTON,
Counsellor at Law.

The Lorraine Vegetable

CATHARTIC PILL.

Dr. Lorraine's Vegetable Pill, or La Medicine Curative, price 25 cents.

MILD, CERTAIN, SAFE AND EFFICIENT.

It at once relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing, at any time, or under any circumstances, the slightest injury to any of them.

The most complete and uniform success has for many years attended its use in France, and in some portions of the United States; and it is now offered to the general public, with the most absolute conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it.

It is harmless in the extreme, at all times, and under all circumstances; and is unequalled by any remedy yet known to the world where a purgative is indicated.

It produces little or no pain in its operation; leaves the organs entirely free from irritation, and never, in the slightest degree, over-taxes or excites the nervous system.

In Bilious Diseases, Indigestion and Dyspepsia, it is invaluable.

It is the grand Purifier of the Blood, and hence cannot fail to eradicate from the system Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker, and Cutaneous Eruptions generally. Irregular, or want of Appetite, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Colic Pains, Diarrhœa, Water-brash, Sour and Bitter Stomach, and foulness and faintness of the same; Impure breath, Dizziness, Sympathetic, Nervous, or Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Gout, and Inflammations in all forms,—these and all kindred diseases can always be wholly cured or greatly relieved by this mild yet powerful remedy.

General Debility with its inseparable accompaniments,—mental and physical,—such as greensickness, lassitude of mind and body, drowsiness, indisposition to exercise, weakness of the limbs, feeling of discouragement, despondency and distrust,—all disappear under its magic influence.

It regulates and invigorates the bowels; is a sure antidote for obstinate costiveness and piles; gives renewed vigor to the stomach; evokes the action of the liver; dissipates the yellow dye of jaundice and eradicates from the skin, bilious spots or moth-mould and freckles.

It excites the Kidneys to renewed, vigorous and healthy action; and is certain to bring prompt relief in all cases of Diarrhœa and Dysentery.

It is eminently effectual in the cure of all diseases of children, however infantile, especially for colic, worms, and irritation and fretfulness while teething.

As a dinner Pill or digester, it is second to none other, taken with the food. It operates as a general alterative, whereby the entire impaired organism is stimulated to renewed energy, and to a healthy vigor and vitality. It is extensively used by the Faculty as a convenient and thorough cathartic, having no action other than the one intended. ☞Sent by mail on receipt of price and postage, viz:

HOW TO CURE

CONSUMPTION!!

THE PHILOSOPHY OF DR. SCHENCK'S GREAT MEDICINES.—Will people never learn to know that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily disease the entire system? The plainest Principles of common sense teach this, and yet there are hundreds who ridicule the idea, and continue in the course which almost inevitably brings them permaturely to the grave. Living as the majority of the people do, at complete variance with the laws of nature, it must be apparent to all that, sooner or later, nature will revenge herself. Hence we find that persons who indulge to excess in the use of very rich or indigestible food or intoxicating drinks, invariably pay a heavy penalty in the end. The stomach becomes disordered and refuses to act; the liver fails to perform its functions, dyspepsia and its attendant evils follow, and still the suffering individuals persist in clinging to the thoroughly exploded ideas of the past. Dr. Schenck's medicines are recommended to all such. They bring sure and certain relief wherever they are used as directed, and all that is necessary to establish their reputation with every ailing man or woman in the land is a fair and impartial trial of them. Let those who are skeptical on this point, and who have permitted interested persons to prejudice them against these now celebrated remedies for Consumption, discard their prejudices, and be governed by the principles of reason and common sense. If the system is disordered depend upon it, in nine cases out of ten the seat of disorder will be found in the stomach and liver. To cleanse and invigorate the stomach and to stimulate the liver to healthy action, use

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—The daily increasing demand for these pills is the best evidence of their value. Thousands upon thousands of boxes are sold daily. Why? Simply because they act promptly and efficiently. Invalids who may not find it convenient to call on Dr. Schenck in person are informed that full and complete directions for use accompany each package of the MANDRAKE PILLS, PULMONIC SYRUP AND SEAWEED TONIC.—These medicines will cure consumption unless the lungs are so far gone that the patient is entirely beyond the reach of medical relief.

It may be asked by those who are not familiar with the virtues of these great remedies, "How do Dr. Schenck's medicines effect their wonderful cures of consumption?"

The answer is a simple one. They begin their work of restoration by bringing the stomach, liver and bowels into an acive healthy condition. It is food that cures this formidable disease.—SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS act on the liver and stomach, promoting healthy secretion, and removing the bile and slime which have resulted from the inactive or torpid condition of these organs, and of the system generally. This sluggish state of the body, and the consequent accumulation of the unhealthy substances named prevent the proper digestion of food, and, as a natural consequence creates disease, which results in prostration and finally in death.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP and SEAWEED TONIC, when taken regularly, mingle with the food, aid the digestive organs, make good rich blood, and as a natural consequence, give flesh and strength to the patient. Let the faculty say what it may, this is the only true cure for consumption. Experience has proved it beyond the shadow of a doubt, and thousands are to-day alive and well who a few years since were regarded as hopeless cases, but who were induced to try Dr. Schenck's remedies, and were restored to permanent health by their use.

One of the first steps the physician should take with a consumptive patient is to invigorate the system. Now how is this to be done? Certainly not by giving medicines that exhaust and enervate—medicines that impair instead of improve the functions of the digestive organs. Dr. Schenck's medicines cleanse the stomach and bowels of all substances which are calculated to irritate or weaken them. They create an appetite—promote healthful digestion—make good blood, and, as a consequence, they invigorate and strengthen the entire system, and more especially those parts which are diseased. If this cannot be done, then the case must be regarded as a hopeless one.

If the physician finds it impossible to make a PATIENT FEEL HUNGRY, if the diseased person cannot partake of good nourishing food and properly digest it, it is impossible that he can gain flesh and strength; and it is equally impossible to bring a patient to this condition so long as the liver is burdened with diseased bile, and the stomach laden with unhealthy slime.

Almost the first request made to the physician by a consumptive patient is that he will prescribe medicines that will remove or allay the cough, night sweats and chills, which are the sure attendants on consumption. But this should not be done, as the cough is only an effort of nature to relieve itself, and the night sweats and chills are caused by the diseased lungs. The remedies ordinarily prescribed do more harm than good.—They impair the functions of the stomach, impede healthy digestion, and aggravate rather than cure the disease.

There is, after all, nothing like facts with which to substantiate a position, and it is upon facts that Dr. Schenck relies. Nearly all who have taken his medicines in accordance with his directions have not only been cured of consumption, but, from the fact that these medicines act with wonderful power upon the digestive organs, patients thus cured speedily gain flesh. Cleansing the system of all impurities, they lay the foundation for a solid, substantial structure. Restoring these organs to health, they create an appetite. The food is properly assimilated; the quantity of blood is not only increased, but is made rich and strong and in the face of such a condition of the system all disease must be banished.

Full directions accompany each of the medicines, so that it is not absolutely necessary that patients should see Dr. Schenck personally, unless they desire to have their lungs examined. For this purpose he is at his principle office, No. 15 North Sixth St., corner of Commerce, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 6 A. M., until 1 P. M.

Advice is given without charge, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each, $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. [June 10, 1870–1y

MANHOOD

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scene of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain: the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of Chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is a testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.—Price $1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.
